

Monday - 3/26

12 - 2am	Audinne & Stephanie	Lipsync for WUVT's Legacy	Songs you can werk to.
2 - 4am	Mary and Madi	Wincing the Night Away with Mary and Madi	Way back when in 2015, Madi Madrazo and I (Mary Desmond) were wee little AM DJs together. We learned the ropes from the upperclassmen WUVT FM DJs and we played a lot of indie pop. You will hear everything from The Shins to Vampire Weekend to Caribou to Mogwai to MGMT. Basically, we're coming full circle and we wanted to be cheesy and graduate from WUVT the way we came in :-)
4 - 7am	Beef Wellington	Under the Covers	A collection of my favorite covers from across the board! Do you wanna know what your favorite industrial songs sound like through an Indie Pop or even Jazz filter?! This isn't like your local bar tribute act! Amazing covers from Jazz artists like John Zorn, to post-punk legends such as Jesus and Mary Chain and Feelies!
7 - 9am	Miles Goodall	Labor and Protest Songs	Songs from labor movements, walk-outs, sit-ins, protests, you name it.
9am - Noon	The Winds of Change	70 Years of Female Voices for WUVT's 70th	A three hour genre skipping smorgasbord of female voices and instruments from 1948 - 2018
12 - 2pm	EDJ Jarie	1 Decade? What a Difference! 2008 vs. 2018	Featuring top hits from 2008 and 2018. This program will take you between middle school dances and awkward moments back to the reality of today. See how music has (or hasn't) changed in just one decade, jam out to some old hits, and hear what 2018 has already brought to the table.
2 - 3:30pm	RLRO Nation	RLRO's Going Country	Country Music invades the airwaves of The WUVT!
3:30 - 5pm	Hippie Funk & Indie Junk	Woodstock on WUVT	Hey man, don't you miss the groovy jams of the late sixties!? Well, tune in to Hippie Funk & Indie Junk and enjoy a Woodstock recap hosted by DJ B Mom!! Be transported to the days of Jefferson Airplane, Iron Butterfly, Jimi Hendrix, and more!
5 - 7pm	Clark	New York Noise and Such	Jazz and Such plays Naked City, Last Exit, and more noisy city sounds. Sound units happen.
7 - 9pm	Sister Ray	Illuminations: Lost Women of Folk Music	From singing nuns to missing person, an exploration of lost or forgotten female folk singers with brief forays into private press albums, and oddities.
9pm - Midnight	Brendan Quinn	Best For Last	The last songs on some amazing albums

Join me as I showcase the musical diversity of the birthplace of humanity. I'll be playing a song from all 54 UN recognized countries in Africa. Starting with Algerian funk and continuing to the Chimurenga music of Zimbabwe with stops in every country in between.
4 - 7am	Mitchell K	Africa A-Z Part 2	All the wonderfulness of Africa A to Z continued.
7 - 9am	Calvin Long	The Self-Indulgent Show	I'll be taking a look back through my years at WUVT by putting together a show of some of my favorite tracks from albums I was fortunate enough to be able review.
9am - Noon	Have You Got It Yet?	The Greatest Song Ever Recorded	For WUVT's 70th Anniversary Radiothon, Captain Deaf Christgau and the 43rd Superlative-Declaring Squirrel Squadron will be spinning all the tunes that the Captain has declared over the years to be the Greatest Song Ever Recorded [tm]. For a donation, he'll play your Greatest of All Time too!
12 - 2pm	DJ Mark	Trip to the Movies	I'll be playing music from movies! That includes original scores, songs that were made famous from a particular movie, and even some music about movies.
2 - 3:30pm	The Frosty and Mr. Crackers Show	Afternoon in the Field	We play field recordings and for every 10 dollars donated we'll play "real" music
3:30 - 5pm	Stacks on Stacks	Summertime in the Libraries	1.5 hours of the Gershwin/Dubose standard "Summertime." Library news, views, & reviews too!
5 - 7pm	Taylor	Dank Maymays	perfect to listen to while snacking on tide pods
7 - 9pm	DJ MC	Songs We Loved	These songs are on the list of top 50 most-played songs at WUVT in the past decade. The show will include history on when the song was first played and the DJs involved.
9pm - Midnight	The Monster of Love	Wash That Wicker Man Outta my Hair	It's springtime, and thoughts turn lightly to love, outdoor frolic, and the occasional human sacrifice. Dance, my Children of the Corn, Dance!
